HERE COME THE GOOD OL' DAYS
when the nickel was worth 5¢

In one way we're Old Fashioned. We try to keep the best of past. For instance, we make our own sausage meat. In our dairy department we have that good, creamy tub butter. We have home made potato salad and cole slaw. In one of the most modern stores in this area we maintain an old fashioned courtesy together with the most old fashioned prices you'll find. Our store and all departments are shining new but everywhere is a trace of the good things of old.

We have been asked about our one cost system.

You are welcome to call at any time to discuss these matters.

stage plays have been given annually. "A View From the Bridge," "The Glass Menagerie," and "Waiting for Godot" are three of the most widely acclaimed presentations.

Enthusiastic participation has steadily increased. It is to be expected, therefore, that the number of activities of the group will increase proportionately.

"Dirty Work at the Crossroads," an old-time melodrama that drew overflow crowds when given this past winter at the Center has been chosen as the vehicle by which the M.A.C. will launch its membership campaign this year. It will be presented in a cabaret atmosphere at the much larger Tennis Club on Holmes Street in Marion.

On Thursday, August 22nd at 8 P.M. the bar opens. The performance which begins at 8:45 will be given for those who wish to lend their support as Patrons or Sustaining Members. With a Patron Membership four tickets will be given. With a Sustaining Membership two tickets will be given. These members may then obtain extra tickets for an additional fee. Free champagne should contribute to a gala opening night atmosphere.

The following evening, Friday, August 23rd at 8 P.M. the performance will be staged once more for those who take out a family membership and those who do not wish to join at this time but would enjoy a great

GARDEN CLUB MEMBERS MEET

Twenty-three members of the Marion Garden Club and one guest, Mrs. Earl Scheirer of Allentown, Pa., enjoyed a delightful chicken barbecue luncheon Monday at the home of Mrs. Millard Titcomb, Acushnet Road, Mattapoisett.

Mrs. Andrew Patterson, president, opened the regular business meeting at 2 P.M. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Darrough S. Carney, who is out of town, Mrs. Herbert Drake read the reports of the secretary and treasurer, with Mrs. Ellsworth Handy taking the minutes.

A letter was read from the Massachusetts Federation of Garden Clubs, signed by the president, Mrs. Neil MacLaren, inviting the Marion president to a meeting at the Pleasant Valley Country Club in Worcester September 11.

A letter from the Federation stated that the 1963 anti-litter campaign was reported highly successful and asked that the Marion Club name a chairman on this project for 1964. The president will make an appointment.

A letter from Mr. Kenneth V. Chace advised that the Marion Club has been granted the use of the Congregational Chapel for its September meeting, the afternoon of the 9th, which will be guest day. A special program will include as guest speaker, Mr. Grant Tolles of Lakeville, his subject being "Nature's Symphony."

Mrs. Herbert Drake reported that Mrs. Breta Aspin of Converse Road is a patient at the Mattapoisett Nursing Home, also that Mrs. Carl Johnson has returned from St. Luke's Hospital, where she was a surgical patient, and is recuperating at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Patterson.

Mrs. Ralph Talamo-Rossi, chairman of the educational committee, displayed samples of personal greeting cards for Christmas cards and announced that the committee will take orders for these and have cards for sale at the September meeting, to benefit the fund.

Mrs. Handy reported that she has been appointed by Mrs. George Walker, federation district director, as horticultural chairman of the Southeastern District.

The resignation of Mrs. William Winters was accepted with regret. Mrs. Nelson M. Weeks announced that she is leaving Marion this week to live in Florida.

The mystery package was won by Mrs. Harriet Smith.

Following adjournment, there was judging by popular vote of the personally designed hats worn by members, using flowers, fruits and vegetables for trimming. Mrs. Patterson was awarded first prize, Mrs. Herman Popp, second prize; and prizes to Miss Katherine Sears and Mrs. Handy.

COVER PICTURE

"Grand Banks Fisherman" oil by D. Jason, original owned by Charles Dunn. Very much in evidence recently are the great fleets of Russia, state owned, in the fishing grounds off the U. S. and Canada. This task force type of operation covering miles of ocean and cleaning it of everything living threatens to make our cover fisherman an extinct personality. Norwegian fishermen, so numerous in the New Bedford industry, are here mostly because the once great fishing grounds off the coast of Norway have been ruined by fleets of Russian vessels. Talk to them and you learn much. The Norwegian grounds once had great runs of fish. The Norwegian fishermen fished in privately owned boats. They fished in seasons on the different types of fish. The Russian fleets moved in and in a ten-year period cleaned out the grounds. The Soviet fleets contain factory ships for processing all fish taken. The smaller fishing boats are beautifully built and lavishly equipped. They fish in formation utilizing the latest electronic equipment to locate the fish schools. Each small fishing vessel is so manned that they continue to fish 24 hours per day. The fleets even contain floating dry docks to service ships right on the fishing grounds. The Russians respect no international fishing agreements as the net size, etc. Privately owned boats from the U. S. are forced to give way to the huge fleet or be run down and lose their gear. Some of our fishermen now estimate that this type of intensive fishing will clean out the fabulous bank grounds off our coats in about 10 years. The old fisherman on our cover is doomed just as surely as the fish. While our new frontiersmen are now bowing and scraping around the champagne circuit with Khrushchev, eagerly dreaming up new treaties to sign, he is taking us to the cleaners on the land and particularly on the sea. Editor.
